

RESTLESS

when i wake up
have we moved at all
it won't let you go
though i keep trying all is shared a grown
get along let us break
and let me...

halt

who goes there
am i still staring at your ghost
it'll take lots of years
to bury all the you i've known all's forgiven
and all that's running out of air i've just had enough
of getting restless in the night
balance so terrible split and let it hold tipping the weight
moving forward
cosmic glue how i've been fighting you
yet looking for
all your warmth
all is shared and grown
get along let us break
and let me...

all's forgiven
i've just had enough
it's the night time
it's the night time yeah I'm still finding that it all just falls away when i fall asleep...
